

I, MATILDA ACKLEY DONOHO, of the County of Suffolk, in the State of New York, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills by me at any time made.

FIRST: I direct my Executors, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts, funeral and testamentary expenses as soon as possible after my decease.

M.A.D.

SECOND: I give and bequeath the sum of ~~one~~^{two} THOUSAND DOLLARS, to the LAUREL HILL CEMETERY COMPANY, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, IN TRUST, to invest the said sum and apply the income thereof as it shall accrue, to keep the burial plot known as the Lots of John A. Fry and Thomas W. Ackley, being Nos. 196 and 198, in Section 9, of the Laurel Hill Cemetery, in good order and condition forever.

M.A.D.

THIRD: I give, devise and bequeath to my friends, JOHN RUGER HOPKINS and ROBERT A. EYERMAN, IN TRUST nevertheless, with power to the survivor to appoint a co-trustee, all the finished and unfinished paintings or works of art created by my husband, Gaines Ruger Donoho, together with any frames or artists materials, they to dispose of the same to the best advantage of my estate in accordance with their discretion. I hereby authorize and direct that if the same or any part thereof be sold the proceeds be divided equally between the surviving children of Lisa Hopkins, a cousin of Gaines Ruger Donoho.

I also give to my Trustee, hereinafter named, the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, the income thereof to be used to meet and defray the expenses for the care and storage of said paintings and works of art until the same are disposed of. After said paintings and works of art are disposed of the said sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS shall be divided equally by my Trustee between the surviving children of Lisa Hopkins.

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to NAOMI HENRY and JEAN STAUFFER, daughters of Horace P. Fry, my table and other silver and household linen and all my personal effects and bric-a-brac except those hereinbefore disposed of, but not my household furniture and rugs.

FIFTH: I give and bequeath to the heirs of GEORGE G. HOPKINS, the mortgage of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS that I hold upon his property and farm at Ballston Lake, N.Y.

SIXTH: I give and bequeath to my Trustee, hereinafter named, the sum of THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, IN TRUST nevertheless, to invest and keep the same invested and pay the net income thereof to ELEANOR J. BEATTY, of Atlantic City, N. J., in semi-annual installments, during her life, and upon the death of said Eleanor J. Beatty, I direct that the income from said trust fund be paid to her husband, THOMAS D. BEATTY, during his life. I direct that the income paid on said $30,000 trust fund be not less than Fifteen Hundred Dollars a year. If the income from said fund should be less than Fifteen Hundred Dollars a year, I order my Trustee to increase said income to $1500, charging the amount necessary to make up said $1500 to the trusts herein created for Mary Hatch Stiles and Herbert S. Keffer, two-elevenths against the income of Mary Hatch Stiles and three-elevenths against the income of Herbert S. Keffer.

Upon the death of the survivor of Eleanor J. Beatty and Thomas D. Beatty, I direct that TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS of the principal of said trust fund be added to my residuary estate and be distributed in accordance with the provisions herein contained.

I direct that the remaining TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS of said trust fund be held in trust for the benefit of S. WINES HULSE, the income thereof to be paid to him in semi-annual installments, during his life, and upon his death the income thereof to be paid to his wife, ESTHER HULSE, during her life, in recognition of faithful services rendered to me. Upon the death of the survivor I direct that the principal of said trust fund of Ten Thousand Dollars be added to my residuary estate and be distributed in accordance with the provisions herein contained.

SEVENTH: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, wherever situate and however held, I direct my Trustee, hereinafter named, to divide into eleven equal parts and distribute the same as follows:

Two-elevenths thereof to be held by my Trustee IN TRUST nevertheless, for the benefit of my cousin, MARY HATCH STILES, of Philadelphia, Pa., during her life, the income thereof to be paid to her in semi-annual installments, and upon her death the principal of said trust fund to be distributed as follows: Three-quarters thereof to the Southampton Hospital, at Southampton, L. I., and One-quarter thereof to the Settlement House, at East Hampton, L. I. The amount bequeathed to the Southampton Hospital to be held in its Endowment Fund and the income only to be used. The amount bequeathed to the Settlement House to form part of its Endowment Fund and the income only to be used.

Three-elevenths thereof to be held by my Trustee IN TRUST nevertheless, for the benefit of HERBERT S. KETTER, during his life, the income thereof to be paid to him in semi-annual installments, and upon his death the principal of said trust fund to be distributed as follows: Three-quarters thereof to the Southampton Hospital, at Southampton, L. I., and One-quarter thereof to the Settlement House, at East Hampton, L. I. The amount bequeathed to the Southampton Hospital to be held in its Endowment Fund and the income only to be used. The amount bequeathed to the Settlement House to form part of its Endowment Fund and the income only to be used.

Three-elevenths thereof I give and bequeath to HORACE P. FRY, or his heirs.

Three-elevenths thereof I give and bequeath to MERCEDES ALLEN NOLAN, or her heirs.

EIGHTH: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my friend, HOWARD O. WOOD, and the GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, of No. 524 Fifth Avenue, in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, and the GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, Trustee of the trusts herein created, and request that no bond or other security be required of them for the faithful performance of their duties in any capacity in which they may act under this will.

NINTH: I hereby give and grant unto my Executors and Trustee full power and authority to sell, mortgage, lease, exchange and dispose of my estate, real and personal, or any portion thereof, of whatsoever name and nature, at public or private sale, at such time or times, on such terms and in such manner as to them shall seem best and proper, and to make, execute and give all necessary and proper deeds of conveyance, assignments, transfers, or other instruments in writing necessary and proper therefor.

TENTH: I direct my Executors to pay the Collateral Inheritance Tax and other taxes and charges on all legacies properly chargeable therewith so that every beneficiary under my Will shall receive his or her legacy without any diminution therefrom.

ELEVENTH: I expressly order and direct that neither my Executors or my Trustee shall be obliged to change the investments existing at the time of my death and that they shall have the power and right to retain said investments, but that if the same are changed or sold by them I hereby direct that in the investment of the funds in their care and control they be limited in their investments to the provisions contained in the Decedent Estates Law of the State of New York, to wit, that they may invest such funds in the same kind of securities as those in which savings banks of the State of New York are by law authorized to invest and in bond and mortgage on unincumbered real property in this state worth fifty per cent more than the amount loaned thereon. Said Executors and Trustee shall not be liable for any loss that may occur to the estate committed to their charge by reason of the depreciation of any investments held by me at the time of my death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have to this my Last Will and Testament, set my hand and seal this fourth day of April, in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-five.
