

THE NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

GRADUATION AT NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

On the final day of Nursery School at the Neighborhood House, Mrs. Broadus Johnson, President of the East Hampton Visiting Nurse Association (Neighborhood House) presented diplomas to the children who have been attending the Nursery School and who will be among those entering regular kindergarten classes in the fall.

Mrs. Johnson spoke graciously to the children and was assisted in the program arranged for them, their parents and relatives by the Rev. Samuel Davis who gave the special children's invocation. Preceding the program, a delightful piano selection was given by Mr. Harry Allaire.

Those graduating were Angela Alexia, Betsy Bennett, Michelle Cerchiai, Susan Friese, Theresa Grimshaw, Lynne Hoyt, Sheila Johnson, Pamela Nason, Eileen Travers, Martha Tengzelius, and Susan Vorpahl, along with Frank Bain, Bobby Doyle, Mark Johnson, Kenneth Lockard, John MacPherson, Jamie Walz, Phillip Yardley and Jesse Zenger.

Members of the Board of the East Hampton Visiting Nurse Association present including Mrs. Broadus Johnson were Mrs. John C. Ahlquist, Mrs. Edward Maguire, Mrs. James Skidmore, Mrs. Frank C. Carr and Mr. Richard Herrlin.

At the close of the program refreshments were served for all by Mrs. Raymond Card and Mrs. Emmet Bennett of the Neighborhood House Service Club.
