Mr. Justin Haynes
435 East 52nd. Street
New York, New York 10022

Dear Mr. Haynes:

In reply to your recent letter - please be advised that your $50.00 contribution to the work of the East Hampton Visiting Nurse Association was made to an exempt organization and is tax deductible.

The East Hampton Visiting Nurse Association:

- 1- Has been issued Form M-0711 from the Internal Revenue Service - "Exempt Organizations Branch" which classifies the Association "as an organization that is not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code."
- 2- Has Form ST-119 - Exempt Organization Certification - Certificate Number EX-126032 from the New York State Sales Tax Bureau.
- 3- Files Annual Report Form 990 - "Return of Organization from Income Tax" - with the Internal Revenue Service.
- 4- Files Annual Report Form DCS-4979 - with the New York State Department of Social Services - "Charities Registration Division."
- 5- Files Annual Report Form MYCF-2 - "Annual Report of Charitable Organization" - with the State of New York - Office of Attorney General.

I am sure that the above will provide you with the information necessary and it is my pleasure to be able to assist you.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Avis S. Usher
Secretary-Treasurer
