

E. H. FIRE DEPT. FIGHTS THIRD BLAZE OF DAY ON MONDAY

THE ABOVE PHOTO shows the East Hampton Fire Department battling a fire at a house owned by John Cooper, on Springs Road. The men shown are, left to right, Frank Cafiso, Hank Beyers, Robert Vetault,

Harold Chapman and James Mullins. Standing behind Vetault, holding the hose, is Henry Chapman. Although the fire was extinguished, the house was severely damaged. photo by Bill Vail, E.H.F.D.

Various Organizations Keep High School Busy

Mrs. John Ecker, E.H.S. librarian, has announced the arrival of several new books. One of the additions is "Nisei Daughter", the story of a Japanese family in a mid-western relocation camp. Another is Herbert Philbrick's "I Led Three Lives", the story of a famous F.B.I. agent who operates under the guise of a communist.

Mrs. James Edwards' secretarial club took a trip to New York City last Friday. In addition to the Royal Typewriter Office, 2 Park Ave., they took a guided tour of Rockefeller Center. Vern Easles, a Royal typewriter representative, arranged the trip. They were joined by the Huntington High School secretarial club.

Charles Juckett, guidance director, spent Tuesday morning of last week at Montauk Grade School. His visit concerned future schedules and courses to be offered at the high school.

On January 12, the girls of the enjoy class had an opportunity to compete with 189,530 girls throughout the nation in the "Homemaker

Girl Scout Comm. Elects Officers For 1955 Schedule

The Town Committee of the Girl Scouts met last week with sixteen members present; the chairman, Mrs. Helen Stevens presiding. The following were elected to fill the following offices for this year's term: Chairman, Mrs. Helen Stevens; Assistant Chairman, Mrs. Grace Renkins; Secretary, Mrs. Beatrice Olddeck; Treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn Wilson; House Committee, Mrs. Mae Schaefer; Juliette Lowe, Chairman, Mrs. LaVerne Field; Camp Chairman, Mrs. Helen Rigby; Uniform Exchange Committee, Mrs. Pearl Howard for East Hampton and Mrs. Dorothy Miller for Springs; Registrar, Mrs. Charles Talmage; Program, Mrs. Mary Louise McElroy; Publicity, Mrs. LaVerne Field for East Hampton and Mrs. Ophelia Harris for Springs; Organization, Mrs. Helen Stevens; Training, Mrs. Dorothy Wohlfert.

To date there are ninety-six Brownies and seventy-five Girl

Dinner Dance Jan. 29 To Benefit Guild Hall

The Guild Hall Winter Committee, of which Robert G. Reutershan is chairman, will give, as a benefit for the winter maintenance fund, an informal buffet dinner-dance similar to last year's highly successful one, on Saturday, Jan. 29. It will be open to the public.

The menu for the buffet dinner planned by Mrs. S. Gardner Osborn will include Virginia baked ham, homemade casserole dishes, salads and desserts. It will be served continuously between 7:30 and 9:00 p.m., followed by dancing to an orchestra assembled by James Reutershan. Since the party is a benefit, most of the food will be donated by the committee and others attending.

The galleries will be decorated and furnished informally, "living room style", and hostesses will be present to greet guests and serve the buffet.

The dance will include novelty mixers and "get acquainted" circle dances.

The committee for the party assisting Mr. Reutershan and Mrs. Osborn includes: Mrs. David Baker,

High School Group Ball At Guild Hall 22nd

A January "Snow Ball" for Guild Hall junior members of the High School group will take place on Saturday, Jan. 22, from 8:00 to 11:45 p.m.

The party is being planned by Mrs. A. Victor Amann and Mrs. Samuel Meddaugh, assisted by Mrs. George Simonson and Mrs. Harry Ingalls. The Moran Gallery will be set up night-club fashion and specialties and refreshments will follow the winter theme.

'55 March of Dimes Now in Operation C. King, Chairman

The annual March of Dimes drive is on, the 1955 fund-raising appeal to fight poliomyelitis, under the auspices of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Suffolk County Chapter. Clarence E. King Jr. of The Springs is general chairman for East Hampton Township. Others on the local committee are Robert Hillman, Town Treasurer; Mrs. P. C. Schenck, co-chairman with Mr. King; Herman Friedel, Village chairman; Mrs. John Davis, Springs chairman; Mrs. Bart Hadel Jr. and Robert Hillman for Amagansett; Frank Tuma Jr. for Montauk; Mrs. Harold Domy for Wainscott, and W. Deering Yardley for Sag Harbor.

In a letter sent out to people here, the committee asks for as generous a donation as possible. Suffolk County needs the money for patient care. The National Foundation needs the money to carry on the fight against polio. Braces, special shoes, and wheel-chairs, ambulance and transportation and nursing care have to be paid for.

Summer residents are asked to divide their contribution between their summer and winter residences.

Silver Wedding Reception For Brunos at Lotos Club

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bruno of New York and Montauk celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Tuesday with a reception at the Lotos Club in New York, of which Mr. Bruno is the president. About two hundred and fifty guests attended, among them many notables in aviation and publishing circles, and many people well known in East Hampton and Montauk. Among the summer residents, past or present, in this township attending the reception were Henry C. Von Elm, Frederick H. Ecker, Dr. Stuart L. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Raymond, Mrs. Hedda Guenther, Mrs. Clement M. Keys, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. De Sanctis. Frequent visitors