

A JOURNEY TO MONTAUK begins for the monument cannon on the Springs Green, where it will be restored by Deander Arnold in space provided by the Montauk Coast Guard. The Springs Improvement Society is sponsoring the work, and has asked for donations toward the estimated $6,000 cost. After cutting the bolts securing the cannon with a torch, Kenneth Kent, left, and Peter Maxey, who work for Alex Danyluk watch as it is hoisted onto a truck. The Coast Guard work for restoration of base, by Mr. Arnold. Paula Peterson Photos
Town highway