

June 5, 1934.

Mrs. Ruth Sterling Benjamin, Hostess,
HOME, SWEET HOME House,
East Hampton, New York.

My dear Mrs. Benjamin:

It is some time since you have heard from me. The depression, and the so-called "Economy Bill", all hit me pretty hard, and I have been "laying low" for some time past. But, as the old saying is, "It's hard to keep a good man down".

Will you kindly send me six copies of the HOME, SWEET HOME Book, six of the pictures for framing of the HOME, SWEET HOME, House, and the balance in the better grade of souvenir postcards.

I am enclosing Five Dollars to pay for the same.

I hope this finds you well, and the HOME, SWEET HOME House doing a good business.

Kindly give my best respects to Mr. Rowe.

Thanking you, and with best wishes, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

HENRY M. WILLIAMS,
618 North Third Avenue,
Phoenix, Arizona.
