Dear Madam:

I am an old timer and lived in East Hampton long years ago and I am much interested in the old land marks I have received some souvenir cards from East Hampton News Company and would very much like to know if you have a booklet on sale which gives a brief history of John Howard Payne, date of his birth etc., also do you have any photographs or other souvenirs on sale and if so what are they and what is the price.

I am enclosing a self addressed envelope .

Thanking you for the above information I am

Very truly yours,

Henry M. Williams.
