My dear Mr. Williams:

Each day I have thought that I would have an opportunity to write you a little note of thanks for the lovely pictures and booklet on "Home Sweet Home", but have really been very busy and haven't had an opportunity to concentrate on personal matters until now - and I am also quite busy today. Sometimes it is that way.

Now I am just as pleased as can be with both the booklet and the pictures and I think it was very kind and thoughtful of you to remember me, for you must have many friends who are more deserving. I shall follow your suggestion, and frame the picture, and the booklet shall have a place on my living room table, where I have others of a similar nature.

I hope you are quite well and enjoying life. You always seem happy, so I am sure you are.

Thanking you, and with very best wishes,
I am

Sincerely yours,

Edith A. Benjamin
